

CODE OF CONDUCT TO REGULATE, MONITOR AND REPORT TRADING BY INSIDERS

Under SEBI (PIT) Regulations, 2015

This code is formulated on the principles, as set out in Schedule B to the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015.

This Code of Conduct (“the code”) is framed to prevent insider trading and also further to the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (“the Regulations”) and amendments made thereafter. The Code is to be implemented specifically with reference to the securities of Mohini Health & Hygiene Limited (“Mohini” or “the Company”).

Recipients should carefully read the Regulations in details (a copy of which is also available at the SEBI website sebi.gov.in or sebi.com or from the Compliance Officer of the Company) and contact the Compliance Officer for any clarification or guidance that may be needed.

Terms used in this Code, but not defined herein, shall have the definition as given in the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 of the SEBI Act, 1992.

The Company may at its discretion and/or as mandated by law, make changes to this Code from time to time and shall notify the changes/ revised Code to the persons to whom this Code is applicable by email and such changes shall take place with effect from issuance of the emails or from such date as specified in the notification.

1. Compliance Officer

1.1 The Company has appointed Company Secretary of the Company as Compliance Officer and Chief Investor Relation Officer who shall act as such for the purposes of this Code and under the Regulations and shall report to the Board of Directors of the Company.

1.2 The Compliance Officer is responsible for setting forth policies, procedures, monitoring adherence to the rules for the preservation of “Price Sensitive Information”, ‘pre-clearing of designated employees’ and their dependents’ trades (directly or through respective department heads as decided by the Company), monitoring of trades and the implementation of the Code under the overall supervision of the Board of the Company.

Explanation: For the purpose of this Code, the term ‘designated employees’ shall mean-

- i. Every employee in grade of General Managers or above;
- ii. Every employee in the finance, accounts, secretarial and legal department as may be.

1.3 The Compliance Officer shall maintain a record of designated employees and any changes made in the list of designated employees.

1.4 The Compliance Officer shall assist all the employees in addressing any clarifications regarding the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 and the Company’s code of conduct.

1.5 The Compliance Officer shall report to the Board of Directors and shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee.

1.6 The Compliance Officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these regulations and express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.

2. Preservation of “Price Sensitive Information”

2.1 All information shall be handled within the organization on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the insider’s legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations.

Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:

(i) Entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the board of directors of the company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the company; or

(ii) not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the board of directors of the company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the board of directors may determine.

The board of directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the purpose given above and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

2.2 Need to know

2.2.1 All information shall be handled within the organization on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the insider’s legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations.

2.2.2 All non public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department.

2.3 Limited access to confidential information.

Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security to login and password etc.

3.0 Prevention of misuse of “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information”

3.1 Employees and connected persons designed on the basis of their functional role (“designated employees”) in the Company shall be governed by an internal code of conduct governing dealings in securities.

3.2 Trading Plan:

An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the compliance officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

3.3 Such trading plan shall :

- a. not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
- b. not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results.
- c. entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
- d. not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence.
- e. set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
- f. not entail trading in securities for market abuse;

3.4 The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

3.5 Provided that the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation and in such event the compliance officer shall confirm that the commencement ought to be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information.

3.6 Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

4.0 Trading Window:

- (a) Trading period, i.e., the trading period of the stock exchange, called 'Trading window', is available for trading in the Company's securities. Trading Window shall be used as an instrument of monitoring trading by designated employees.
- (b) The Trading window shall be closed when the Compliance officer determine a designated person or class of designated employees can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Unless otherwise determined Trading window shall be closed from the date of intimation of notice of Board Meeting to stock exchanges.
- (c) Designated employees and their immediate relatives shall not trade in securities when the trading window is closed
- (d) Trading window shall be closed at the time of:
 - 1) Declaration of dividend(interim & final)
 - 2) Declaration of financial results (quarterly, half-yearly and annually)
 - 3) Issue of securities by way of public/ right/ bonus etc.
 - 4) Any major expansion plans or execution of new project.
 - 5) Amalgamation, mergers, takeovers and buy back.
 - 6) Disposal of whole or substantially whole of the undertaking.

- 7) Any changes in policies, plans or operations of the Company.
 - 8) Such other events or circumstances as may be notified by the Compliance Officer.
- (e) The timing for re-opening of the trading window shall be determined by the compliance officer taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information as referred above in 4(d) becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, which in any event shall not be earlier than 48 hours after the information becomes generally available. Unless otherwise determined Trading window shall be opened after 48 hours of information given to stock exchanges.
- (f) In case of ESOPs, exercise of option may be allowed in the period when trading window is closed. However, sale of shares allotted on exercise of ESOPs shall not be allowed when trading window is closed.
- (g) The trading window shall also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the company, such as auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultants etc., assisting or advising the company.
